

INVESTITURE CEREMONY

"Leadership is the capacity to translate vision into reality"

The most auspicious ceremonial occasion 'Investiture Ceremony' of the Army Public School Rakhmuthi was celebrated on 29 April 2023, with full enthusiasm in the school Auditorium. The honorable chief guest Chairman APS Rakhmuthi, graced the occasion. Principal Ms. Shaswati Ghosh welcomed the Chief guest.

The programme commenced with lighting of traditional lamp as a tribute to mother Saraswati followed by group song and dance performance that enthralled the audience.

The day saw a flurry of hectic preparations for the event. The Investiture Ceremony was solemnized with chief guest conferring the authority and adorning the symbols to the office bearers of students' council. Taking the oath, The school Head Girl Sonakshi Sharma of class 12, Head Boy Akshit Sharma of class 12 along with the Vice Head Girl, Vice Head Boy, Captains of all the four houses - Patel, Gandhi, Ambedkar and Nehru pledged their commitment to choose harder right instead of the easier wrong. They also pledged to abide by the rules and regulations of their alma mater.

The function culminated with prize distribution to our academic toppers by our eminent chief guest. The chief guest eloquently addressed the gathering with his views of futuristic vision and conveyed the necessity of co-curricular activities along with academic learning. He also reminded the students the role of leaders and their sanctimonious duties towards the school and inspired them to become the role models for their peers and juniors and live up to their expectations. Vote of thanks was presented by the Principal. The day culminated in beautiful resonance with National Anthem, lingering in everybody's mind.
